

Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling | Advising Guide

All MABC students are required to take at least 8 classes in an on-campus (in-person) format to meet accreditation standards for degree completion

Course	Fall	Spring	Summer	Pre-Requisites
• BC501 Introduction to Biblical Counseling		-
• BC502 Essential Qualities of a Biblical Counselor	-
• BC503 Methods of Biblical Change
BC506 Theology and the Psychologies
• BC511 Theological Basis of Counseling		-
• BC521 Problems and Procedures	-			BC501, BC503, BC511, BC531 preferred
• BC531 Hermeneutics		-
• BC532 Advanced Hermeneutics	-			BC531 (BC501, BC503, BC511 preferred)
BC542 Marriage and Family Counseling				BC501, BC503, BC511, BC531 preferred
BC556 ACBC Membership Seminar				All courses above, BC557, BC560
BC557 Counseling and Physiology
BC560 Biblical Conflict Reconciliation				BC501, BC503, BC511, BC531 preferred
• BC580 Counseling Observations & Practicum	-			All courses above except BC556
BC592 Applied Soul Care I				All courses above
BC593 Applied Soul Care II				All courses above
BC598 Thesis Research				All courses above except BC592 and BC593
BC5__ Elective				See elective course descriptions

- On-Campus: Class is offered only in-person at TMU
- Online: Class is offered only online with pre-recorded lectures
- Synchronous: Class is offered with both on-campus attendance and live Zoom attendance (Zoom attendance does not count as on-campus, in-person, attendance)
- Core class: Class offered only on-campus year around that distance students should plan to take during their summers (Exception: BC501 in the Fall)

*Class formats and availability are subject to change over time.